Committee Meeting Held
February 6, 2014

Honorable Ernest Y. Martin
Chair, City Council
City and County of Honolulu

Mr. Chair:

Your Committee on Zoning and Planning, to which was referred Resolution 14-22 entitled:

“RESOLUTION REQUESTING THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND PERMITTING INVESTIGATE THE HAWAII KAI MEMORIAL PARK,” introduced on January 28, 2014, reports as follows:

The purpose of Resolution 14-22 is to request that the Department of Planning and Permitting investigate grading and stockpiling activity at the Hawaii Kai Memorial Park.

Councilmember Chang, the introducer of the Resolution, explained that this measure responds to concerns expressed by the Hawaii Kai Neighborhood Board that ongoing grading and stockpiling at the cemetery site may be improper and could be affecting water quality.

At your Committee's meeting on February 6, 2014, the Deputy Director of Planning and Permitting stated that his Department will investigate the six items listed in the Resolution and report the Department's findings to the Council.

Your Committee received testimony from two members of the public in support of the resolution, and one member of the public offering comments.
